

I think it is terrible that Sinclair is forcing their affiliates to air the anti-Kerry documentary when we are so close to the election. It is undermining our democracy and taking advantage of the political system. If Sinclair insists on airing this one-sided documentary, it should air a pro-Kerry or anti-Bush film as well.